INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Board of Trustees HealthInsight Salt Lake City, Utah

We have audited the accompanying consolidated statements of financial position of HealthInsight (a non-profit organization) and its related entity as of June 30, 2005 and 2004, and the related consolidated statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of HealthInsight and its related entity's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall consolidated financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of HealthInsight and its related entity as of June 30, 2005 and 2004, and the changes in their net assets and their cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have also issued a report dated December 19, 2005 on our consideration of HealthInsight and its related entity's internal controls over financial reporting and our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grants. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and should be read in conjunction with this report in considering the results of our audit.

Our audits were performed for the purpose of forming an opinion on the basic consolidated financial statements of HealthInsight and its related entity taken as a whole. The accompanying schedule of expenditures of federal awards is presented for purposes of additional analysis as required by U.S. Office of Management and Budget Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations, and is not a required part of the basic financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the basic financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

A. Organization and Activities - HealthInsight is a nonprofit organization which is tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as a charitable organization. HealthInsight serves as a community resource for health care quality improvement and quality assurance activities. This work is being performed primarily in the states of Utah and Nevada. The Organization's federal identification number is 87-0303872.

Contributions to the Organization qualify for the charitable contributions deduction to the extent provided by section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code.

B. Consolidation of Related Entity-The Organization has adopted the provisions of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants Statement of Position No. 94-3 (SOP 94-3) entitled Reporting of Related Entities by Not-for-Profit Organizations. SOP 94-3 states that a not-for-profit organization should consolidate another not-for-profit organization if the reporting not-for-profit organization has both control of the other not-for-profit organization, as evidenced by either a majority ownership or a majority voting interest in the board of trustees of the other not-for-profit organization, and an economic interest in the other not-for-profit organization.

The related entity is identified as:

HealthInsight of Nevada

The related entity was incorporated July 21, 2001 under Nevada nonprofit statutes, with the intent of being designated a Nevada in-state PRO to comply with rules set forth by the Federal Department of Health & Human Services. Certain phases of a Federal contract for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2005 were in the process of being transferred to this related entity. The performance of the contract took place primarily in Nevada by HealthInsight (reporting entity) utilizing its Utah and Nevada employees. The related entity received its tax exempt status under section 501(c)(3) during the year ended June 30, 2004.

- C. Basis of Accounting Assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses are recognized on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.
- D. Unrestricted and Restricted Revenue and Support Contributions and grants are recorded as increases in unrestricted, temporarily restricted, or permanently restricted net assets, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor restrictions. When a restriction is satisfied, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions.
- E. Grants and Contributions Grants and contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recorded as receivables and as revenue in the period in which the donor's commitment to give is established. All grants and contributions are available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Unconditional promises to give (grants and contributions) are recorded at their net realizable value.

Consolidated Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2005 and 2004

- F. Cash and Cash Equivalents For financial statement purposes, the Organization considers all highly liquid investments purchased with a maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.
- G. Investments Investments consist of mutual funds and equity securities, and are carried at the quoted market value. Investment return consists of investment income, as well as realized and unrealized gains and losses.
- H. Property, Equipment and Depreciation Property and equipment consist of furniture and equipment and leasehold improvements. Assets are recorded at cost and are being depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives from three to five years.

Maintenance, repairs and minor replacements are charged to expense as incurred. Major repairs and replacements that prolong the life of an asset are capitalized. The organization's policy is to capitalize amounts greater than $500.

- I. Investments in Affiliated Company and Other Investments The Organization accounts for its investment in an affiliated company and an LLC using the equity method. Its investment in a country club membership is accounted for using the cost method
- J. Reclassifications Certain 2004 amounts have been reclassified to conform to classifications adopted in 2005.
- K. Use of Estimates The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.
- L. Fair Values of Financial Instruments The Organization's financial instruments include cash and investments. The Organization estimates that the fair value of all financial instruments at June 30, 2005 does not differ materially from the aggregate carrying values of its financial instruments recorded in the statement of financial position. The estimated fair value amounts have been determined by the Organization using available market information. The market values are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that the Organization could realize in a current market exchange.

NOTE 4 - INVESTMENT IN AFFILIATED COMPANY AND OTHER INVESTMENTS

Investment in Affiliated Company

The investment in an affiliated company held by the Organization consisted of a 20.64% ownership interest in Q-Mark, Inc., a Colorado for-profit corporation as of June 30, 2005, and June 30, 2004. The investment is accounted for using the equity method. The Organization's initial investment of $75,000 was increased by an additional $66,675 in 2004. In addition, the Organization loaned $160,000 to Q-Mark during the year ended June 30, 2004, and an additional $50,000 during the year ended June 30, 2005.

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Organization's share of Q-Mark's June 30, 2004 cumulative net loss of $208,561 decreased the carrying amount of the investment by $141,675 to $0. The remaining cumulative loss of $66,886 decreased the carrying amount of the loan to $93,114 as of June 30, 2004, and $145,114 as of June 30, 2005 (see Note 13).

Subsequent to June 30, 2005, Q-Mark and its shareholders, including the Organization, entered into an agreement whereby all shareholders agreed to sell their stock and notes to a third party purchaser. As part of the agreement, the Organization and other shareholders agreed to sell all of their stock in Q-mark for a nominal amount. In addition, the Organization and other note holders agreed to reduce the principal amounts owed to them and to forgive all accrued but unpaid interest on the notes. As a result, the total amount owed to the Organization on the note was reduced to $129,661. Due to the sale of its Q-mark stock and the promissory note reduction agreement, no income or loss was recognized by the Organization with respect to Q-mark. See Note 13 for a discussion on the bad debt allowance associated with the note receivable from Q-mark.

The defined contribution feature requires that the Organization contribute an amount equal to 7.6% of each employees's compensation up to the Social Security wage base (the Social Security wage base is equal to 40% of the maximum amount of wages subject to Social Security tax), plus 11.9% of compensation over the Social Security wage base. However, the total contribution from the Organization is limited to 15.2% of compensation up to the Social Security wage base. REPORT ON COMPLIANCE AND ON INTERNAL CONTROL OVER FINANCIAL REPORTING BASED ON AN AUDIT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH GOVERNMENT AUDITING STANDARDS

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of HealthInsight and its related entity as of and for the year ended June 30, 2005, and have issued our report thereon dated December 19, 2005. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States.

Compliance

As part of obtaining reasonable assurance about whether HealthInsight and its related entity's financial statements are free of material misstatements, we performed tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts and grants, noncompliance with which could have a direct and material effect on the determination of financial statement amounts. However, providing an opinion on compliance with those provisions was not an objective of our audit, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. The results of our tests disclosed no instances of noncompliance that are required to be reported under Governmental Auditing Standards.

Internal Control over Financial Reporting

In planning and performing our audit, we considered HealthInsight and its related entity's internal control over financial reporting in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the consolidated financial statements and not to provide assurance on the internal control over financial reporting. Our consideration of the internal control over financial reporting would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control over financial reporting that might be material weaknesses. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that misstatements in amounts that would be material in relation to the financial statements being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. We noted no matters involving the internal control over financial reporting and its operation that we consider to be material weakness. However, we noted other matters involving the internal control over financial reporting that we have reported to management of HealthInsight and its related entity in a separate letter dated December 19, 2005.

This report is intended solely for the information of the board of trustees, management and federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

SMITH POWELL AND COMPANY, LLC CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS 68 SOUTH MAIN. THIRD FLOOR SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH 84101

REPORT ON COMPLIANCE WITH REQUIREMENTS APPLICABLE TO EACH MAJOR PROGRAM AND INTERNAL CONTROL OVER COMPLIANCE IN ACCORDANCE WITH OMB CIRCULAR A-133

Board of Trustees HealthInsight Salt Lake City, Utah

Compliance

We have audited the compliance of HealthInsight and its related entity with the types of compliance requirements described in the U.S. Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-133 Compliance Supplement that are applicable to each of its major federal programs for the year ended June 30, 2005. HealthInsight and its related entity's major federal programs are identified in the summary of auditors' results section of the accompanying schedule of findings and questioned costs. Compliance with the requirements of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants applicable to each of its major federal programs is the responsibility of HealthInsight and its related entity's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on HealthInsight and its related entity's compliance based on our audit.

We conducted our audit of compliance in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America; standards applicable to financial audits contained in Governmental Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States; and OMB Circular A-133, Audits of States, Local Governments, and Non-Profit Organizations. Those standards and OMB Circular A-133 require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether noncompliance with the types of compliance requirements referred to above that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program occurred. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence about HealthInsight's compliance with those requirements and performing such other procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion. Our audit does not provide a legal determination of HealthInsight and its related entity's compliance with those requirements.

In our opinion, HealthInsight and its related entity complied, in all material respects, with the requirements referred to above that are applicable to each of its major federal program for the year ended June 30, 2005.

Internal Control Over Compliance

The management of HealthInsight and its related entity are responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal controls over compliance with requirements of laws, regulations, contracts, and grants applicable to federal programs. In planning and performing our audit, we considered HealthInsight and its related entity's internal controls over compliance with requirements that could have a direct and material effect on a major federal program in order to determine our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on compliance and to test and report on internal control over compliance in accordance with OMB Circular A-133.

Our consideration of the internal control over compliance would not necessarily disclose all matters in the internal control that might be material weaknesses. A material weakness is a condition in which the design or operation of one or more of the internal control components does not reduce to a relatively low level the risk that noncompliance with applicable requirements of laws, regulations, contracts and grants that would be material in relation to a major federal program being audited may occur and not be detected within a timely period by employees in the normal course of performing their assigned functions. We noted no matters involving the internal control over compliance and its operation that we consider to be material weaknesses.

This report is intended for the information of the board of trustees, management and federal awarding agencies and pass-through entities and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.
